

Hindu & Jain Alliance of Greater Pittsburgh

Cordially invites you to

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam [World is but one Family]

Expression of Solidarity and Building Bridges of Love.

A program designed to deliver solace and peace to grieving families and friends of Tree of Life Synagogue victims and brave first responders.

Rabbis, Clergy, Imams and other Spiritual and Religious leaders are warmly invited to attend along with others in our region.

Includes prayers for departed souls, Shanti Mantras for Peace and Strength, meditation and singing of Bhajans (devotional music). Reception and Optional Temple Tour after main program.

When: Sunday, December 9th, 2018
4:00 pm to 5:30 pm

Where: Sri Venkateswara Temple (large auditorium),
1230 South McCully Drive,
Penn Hills, PA 15235

Questions, please contact:

NS Srinivasa, srini111@aol.com

Vijay Reddy, SV temple, vijayshekkerreddy@gmail.com

Hiroo Patel, HJ temple, hiroopatel@tri-statedesign.com

Visala Muluk, Chinmaya Mission, visalamuluk@gmail.com

Makum Ramesh, Ramakrishna Ashrama, mr091950@aol.com

Suresh Ramanathan, PIC5K (a PICA event), sramanathan@koryak.com,

Brahma Sharma, Satya Sai Center, bsharma763@aol.com

Jignesh Shah, Jain Community, j_i_shah@hotmail.com

Som Sharma, Ahinsa, sohum1@gmail.com

